Roselli Design leads the way as food and beverage presentation moves forward with sophistication and simplicity.

Roselli products stand alone as sculpture and require no draping. Large banquet rooms, small meeting rooms, lobbies and common areas function on several levels with furnishings that may be left in place between events.

Made from heavy stainless plate with a seamless, non directional finish, our products are easily maintained,

Today's startups and renovations require the smart, neutral aesthetic that Roselli design products offer the food and beverage industry.
